PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Full Stack Web Developer (Freelance)	2023 - Present
Since 2023, I have expanded my role into full-stack development, working with PHP, MERN stack (MongoDB, Express.js, React.js, Node.js), MySQL, and REST APIs. I handle both frontend and backend development, integrating databases, building scalable APIs, and managing deployment. My experience covers end-to-end project development — from initial planning to launch — ensuring performance, security, and scalability.
Front-End Web Developer (Freelance)	2022 - Present
I have been working extensively with modern frontend technologies, including React.js, Vue.js, Angular.js, HTML5, CSS3, and JavaScript/TypeScript. My work focuses on creating responsive, user-friendly interfaces, optimizing performance, and collaborating with designers to bring UI/UX concepts to life. I've delivered multiple projects with clean, maintainable code and seamless functionality across devices.
